

Jesse send his son David on a mission to take bread and cheese to his brothers at the scene of battle.

Goliath comes out to defy the army of Israel Inset: David offers to go and fight, but rejects Saul's armour.

David chooses five stones from the brook and then confronts the giant.

David launches one stone and hits the giant in the forehead, causing him to fall. He then cuts off Goliath's head with his sword.